IDLE HOUR CHANGES HANDS

J. E. Fawcett Secures Control Of
Earlington's Popular Play
House

PRINCESS WILL BE CLOSED

The Idle Hour, Earlington's popular pleasure house changed hands Monday. Mr. J. E. Fawcett securing control. The Princess will be closed and there will be only one picture show in the city for white people as the town is not larger enough to support two shows. Arrangements are being made to run a picture show for the colored people and they will be given the same service and same films as are used at the Idle Hour. We will continue to give Earlington people four reels of high class stuff and also give away premiums each night. It is our desire to run a high class show and if at any time our patrons are dissatisfied with any feature we will be pleased to have them make complaint. Remember this is your show and we want to please you at all times. We are now using Universal films and they are said to be the best money can buy, but if a majority of our patrons want the Licensed films we will take pleasure in making a change.

Will Start Show For Colored People

J. E. Fawcett is making arrangements to start a first class picture show for the colored people of Earlington. He will use the same four reels used at the Idle Hour and the service will be in every way equal. It will be several days before all arrangements can be completed.

Earlington Regulars Win

"The Earlington Regulars" base ball team easily puts the battle ax to the would be pennant winners of Mortons Gap at the park here last Saturday afternoon. Martin, the star slab artist from the "Baby Metropolis," lasted about three innings when the slack eating boys from our little city fell into him for 9 runs he was yanked and Smith substituted as a starter, he walked Mitchell who stole second and scored on Wyatt's single. From then on it was a kinder garden pick nic for the locals. The only features of the game were the hitting of L. Peyton and Curtis and the twirling of Mitchell who let his opponent down with 4 hits and struck out 16. His team mates accorded him excellent support.

E. M. Trabern has a trap full of fire in front of his store and wants a good plan to kill them.

Ben M. Slaton

The subject of the above has been a resident of this county all his life and is well known in every part of it. He has friends by the score and his appointments by the Governor to the position of the State board of undertakers is a well merited appointment and could be filled by no one who is better qualified to fill it. He has also been made Chairman of the Executive committee of that board. He is one of the boys and is a shiner, Knight Templar and as a friend to a man he is there until the last ditch. This is Ben. We wish him much success and happiness.

Decoration Day Observed At Odd Fellows Cemetery

A large crowd gathered at Odd Fellows cemetery, June 1 to do honor to their dead soldiers. Beautiful and impressive were the services conducted by the Earlington chapter of U. D. C. assisted by Madisonville members, veterans and company E. A song by Mrs. J. Rash, Miss Prather, Dr. Robert Sorey and O. W. Waddell opened the memorial exercises. A prayer by Rev. J. M. Gordon of the Christian church was followed with an address by Rev. A. F. Gordon of the Baptist church which was very edifying indeed, touching on the subject nearest all hearts, in a rare, gentle way. A cross of honor was bestowed on Mr. J. H. Shaw of Mortons Gap, by Miss Flora Pierce, President of the Earlington chapter U. D. C.

Among the citizens who assisted in the evenings program, were Major Gatlin, Walter Dudley, who was master of ceremonies, John Brasher, J. R. Rash, Major Harris and Smoke of the Hustler.

We are indebted to the city for their many courtesies. Especially do we wish to thank the livery men, Mr. Caldwell, and Crow & Stone for use of conveyances; also Metcalfe Floral Company for their generous contribution of flower. Davis, Robert Fenwick, Emma Fletcher, Kate Withers, Dan Umstead, Frank Glanum and Mollie Whalen.

FOILS CONVICT PLAN TO ESCAPE

Penitentiary Guard Not Yet on Duty
Discovers Bar Sawed Through

Frankfort, Ky., May 26.—Fate played a queer prank today when it permitted Captain William Britton, of Harrodsburg, the newest guard at the Frankfort penitentiary to capture Frank Sayman, of Govington, and Sam Spender, of Louisville, convicts, in their attempt to escape from the penitentiary. Sayman had sawed himself from the solitary cell into the corridor, and had but a few more strokes to make of the steel bar separating him from liberty when he dropped his saw out the window.

He returned to his cell and was waiting until night to prize back the bar and escape.

Captain Britton, though not on duty, was inspecting the cell house, when discovered a black string hanging from the ceiling of the cell in which Sayman was confined, and reported the discovery to Warden Wells. An investigation disclosed that both Sayman and Spender had been sawing their way to liberty with saws which Sayman had hid in his shoes. They were put in other cells. It was found later that the men had been sawing on the bars for two days.

COURT OF APPEALS GRANTS WRIT OF PROHIBITION

Takes Original Jurisdiction in Suits of Miners Against I. C. Road

Frankfort, Ky., May 30.—The Court of Appeals this morning took original jurisdiction in the Illinois Central railroad against the coal miners of Muhlenburg county, and issued a temporary writ of prohibition to prevent County Judge, J. J. Rice, of Muhlenburg trying 1,660 suits brought by the coal miners against the railroad for loss of wages, alleged to be occasioned by the road's failure to furnish sufficient cars to haul the output of the mines in which they work. The suits were brought for amounts too small to be appealed. The railroad alleges conspiracy to bring the suits in this manner and to use intimidation. The railroad asked for an injunction in the Muhlenburg Circuit Court, so that the issues of all the cases could be tried out in the injunction proceedings. The injunction was denied, and a writ of prohibition was granted, pending the appeal from Circuit Court on the injunction.

Neglected wounds produce old sores and these in time develop ulcers which eat away the vitality.

Ballard's
Snow Liniment

Is a Healing Remedy for All Ailments of the Flesh of Man and Beast.

The speed with which this splendid Liniment heals up a bad wound or sore has surprised and pleased those who were accustomed to the slower and uncertain effect of less powerful remedies. It mends the lacerated flesh so quickly that there is but little time lost from work. In relieving rheumatic pains, neuralgia, sciatica, it has done and is doing a wonderful work. Many chronic victims of these diseases have found to their great satisfaction that it cures an attack in a fraction of the time required by the ordinary treatment.

It is equally effective in the flesh ailments of animals. Owners of blooded stock value it highly for two reasons: It heals sores and wounds quickly, and leaves no disfiguring scars. This remedy is needed in every home. If its great power and efficacy was generally known, no family would be without it.

Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per Bottle.
